MEMORANDUM FOR HEADS OF EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENTS AND AGENCIES

FROM: James C. Viner III
Director

SUBJECT: Withholding of Automatic Spending Increases Under
H.J. Res. 372

It is Administration policy that all affected agencies should take all steps necessary to implement the provision of the newly enacted Gramm-Rudman-Hollings bill which requires that automatic spending increases that would, but for this provision, be "first paid" during the period between December 12, 1985 and March 1, 1986, be suspended until March 1. The amounts that would otherwise be expended during this period for these increases are to be withheld, starting with the next scheduled payment.
